Take the Crown Range Road (if weather permits) for one of Aotearoa's most scenic drives.

What to Do:

- Visit Cardrona Hotel (iconic pub stop)
- Enjoy views from Crown Range Summit
- Arrive in Queenstown — your alpine adventure base

Where to Stay:

- Queenstown Lakeview Holiday Park
  - Driftaway Queenstown (for a premium camper stay)

Day 7: Explore Queenstown

Round off your trip with a relaxing or adrenaline-filled day — your choice!

What to Do:

- Walk the Queenstown Gardens
  - Ride the Gondola + Luge
  - Take a cruise on Lake Wakatipu
  - Treat yourself to dinner at Fergburger or Flame Bar & Grill

What to Pack

- Warm layers and waterproof gear (especially for the West Coast)
  - Sturdy walking shoes
  - Insect repellent (sandflies love the Coast)
  - Camera and spare battery
  - Swimmers and towel
  - Daypack for walks
  - Reusable water bottle and snacks

Local Travel Tips

- Fill up on fuel before Haast — it's remote
  - Drive cautiously on one-lane bridges and winding roads
  - Download maps before Franz Josef — reception can be patchy
  - DOC camps are often first-come, first-served
  - Sandflies are worst near water and forest — cover up or use spray

Must-Try Local Flavours

- Murchison: Lamb pies at the Murchison Tearooms
  - Westport: Crayfish or whitebait (seasonal)
  - Hokitika: Hokey Pokey ice cream or a fresh seafood platter
  - Franz Josef: Pizza and pints at SnakeBite Brewery
  - Wānaka: Big Fig for slow-cooked local meals
  - Queenstown: Famous Fergburger and local wine tastings

Need to Know

- West Coast weather can change fast — be flexible
- Don't attempt glacier walks without a guide
- Haast Pass has limited services — plan breaks
- Rubbish bins are rare on scenic roads — pack it out

- DOC sites may not have toilets with paper — bring your own
