

Wine and Waves: 5 Days of Beaches and Vineyards

Quick Overview

- ⌚ Duration: 4–5 days
- 🏁 Start Point: Picton Ferry Terminal
- 🚩 End Point: Abel Tasman
- ☀️ Best Time to Go: November – April
- 🚐 Total Driving Time: 4–6 hours
- 🌟 Highlights: Beaches, wine tasting, seafood, easy walks

---

Intro

This itinerary is the perfect starting point for your South Island adventure. From Abel Tasman, you can continue west along the wild West Coast or circle back toward Kaikōura and the east coast.

If you're dreaming of golden beaches, turquoise bays, and world-class wine, this 5-day journey from Picton to Abel Tasman is for you. Picture yourself kayaking through crystal-clear waters in the morning, then sipping Sauvignon Blanc in the afternoon sun. Whether you're enjoying fresh seafood with your toes in the sand or wandering through vineyard country, this route offers a relaxed balance of coastal adventure and culinary indulgence.

---

Days 1–2: Arriving via Picton Ferry & Exploring the Sounds

Day 1: Arrive in Picton & Ease Into the Journey

Morning:

- ⛴️ Arrive via the Interislander or Bluebridge ferry
- ☕️ Grab a coffee and walk along the Picton Marina
- 🚶 Stroll the Tirohanga Track or explore the nearby lookout

Afternoon:

- 🛶 Optional: Join a short kayaking trip in the Marlborough Sounds
- 蚆 Visit the Edwin Fox Maritime Museum or EcoWorld Wildlife Centre

Evening:

- 🍽️ Dinner at a local seafood spot like Oxley's or Cortado

-  Enjoy sunset from Victoria Domain

 Tip: For a peaceful night, stay at a nearby holiday park or campground with views of the harbour.

---

Day 2: Marlborough Wine Region

Morning:

-  Drive to Blenheim (30 mins)
-  Start the day with tastings at Cloudy Bay or Wither Hills

Afternoon:

-  Enjoy a winery lunch — many offer picnic-style dining
-  Rent bikes and explore the Renwick wine loop at your own pace

Evening:

-  Dine at a vineyard restaurant or head into town for something casual
-  Optional: Relax at your campsite under the stars

 Local Tip: Smaller cellar doors like Framingham and No.1 Family Estate offer something a little different — and often quieter!

---

Day 3: Nelson – Art, Coast & Culture

Morning:

-  Drive from Blenheim to Nelson via Queen Charlotte Drive (2–2.5 hrs)
-  Stop at scenic pullouts and viewpoints along the way

Afternoon:

-  Explore Nelson's galleries and artisan shops
-  Grab lunch at a local deli or the Saturday Market (if timing aligns)

Evening:

-  Sample a craft beer at The Free House or Sprig & Fern
-  Try dinner at East St. Vegetarian Café or Urban Oyster Bar

💡 Local Tip: Check out Founders Heritage Park for a taste of local history with quirky charm.

---

Days 4–5: Abel Tasman National Park

Morning:

- 🚗 Drive to Kaiteriteri (1 hr from Nelson) — gateway to the park
- ⛴ Join a water taxi or guided kayak tour into the park
- 🏊 Swim, hike, or relax at beaches like Torrent Bay or Bark Bay

Afternoon:

- 🥾 Walk a section of the Abel Tasman Coast Track
- 🍱 Enjoy a packed lunch by the water

Evening:

- 🌅 Watch the sun set from the beach
- 🍕 Grab dinner in Kaiteriteri or nearby Marahau

💡 Local Tip: Book kayak or water taxi tours in advance — they fill fast in peak season.

---

Optional Extra Day

Got more time? Here are some great additions:

1. Seafood Cruise: Take a scenic cruise in the Marlborough Sounds — complete with green-lipped mussels and wine.
2. Beach Day: Head to Whites Bay, a quiet local beach near Blenheim.
3. More Wineries: Explore Renwick's boutique vineyards if you missed them earlier.

---

What to Pack

- 🧴 Sun Protection: Sunscreen, sunglasses, wide-brim hat
- 👟 Light Walking Shoes: Great for coastal and bush tracks
- 👗 Smart Casual Wear: Perfect for winery visits and dining out
- 👙 Swimwear: For kayaking, beach stops, or spontaneous dips

---

Local Tips

-  Book kayak tours early — especially in summer
-  Some wineries require bookings — call ahead or check online
-  Try the green-lipped mussels — a Marlborough specialty
-  Ask cellar door staff for local wine tips and hidden gems

---

Final Thoughts

This blend of wine and waves offers the perfect mix of relaxation and exploration. Whether you're gliding across a quiet bay or toasting the day with a glass of Sauvignon Blanc, this itinerary lets you experience the best of the South Island's coastal charm and culinary flair — all at your own pace.

TohuTravellers.com— Trust the Journey